It is the year 2007.The world has been wiped out by a deadly plague that killed all the adults. Without them, children perished of hunger and disease. No more people, no more electricity, no more civilization -- just mildewed houses, overgrown yards, and abandoned cars. Yet on a highway strip outside a small town in Florida, the words "We're Still Here" are painted in letters big enough to be ...

Kindling the Flames is canon to both my Dauntless Gray world and to Veronica Roth's Divergent world. (To the best of my ability.) Because this story is Pre-Divergent there are a lot of original characters in it. There was a request when I wrote Dauntless Gray list the name and a brief summary of the original characters at the start of each chapter.
